

Wine Spectator Insider

Marvin R. Shanken Editor and Publisher

A Members-Only, Weekly Publication

BODEGA LUIGI BOSCA

Malbec Luján de Cuyo Reserva 2007

90 points | $20 | 30,000 cases imported | Red

Dark, with a core of plum, melted fig and iron notes covered by dark cocoa and espresso. The long, rich finish lets a flash of minerality peek in. Drink now through 2011.—J.M.

Wine Spectator's 100-Point Scale

95-100	Classic
90-94	Outstanding
85-89	Very good
80-84	Good
75-79	Mediocre
50-74	Not recommended